

Dominikus is married to Anna. They both attended Christ for the Nations where he graduated from the School of Pastoral Ministry and the School of Missions and wife Anna from the School of Worship. After graduating from CFNI, he pursued further studies at Southwestern Assemblies of God University and obtained his Bachelors and Masters Degrees in Organizational Leadership Management. He recently obtained his Doctor of Religious Philosophy in Christian Leadership & Community Organization from Integrity Seminary.

He mainly served in various ministry roles as a missions director, associate pastor and a prayer coordinator. His heart is to see God's kingdom come here on earth as it in heaven.

Dr. Hinda and his wife, Anna are blessed with three children. Their greatest desire is to build an orphanage and an educational institution in Namibia if the Lord tarries.
